And now my brethren, i wish from the inmost part of my heart, yea, with great anxiety, even unto pain, that ye would hearken unto my words, and cast off your sins; and not procrastinate the day of your repentance, but that ye would humble yourselves before the lord, and call on his holy name, and watch and pray continually, that ye may not be tempted above that which ye can bear, and thus be led by the holy spirit, becoming humble, meek, submissive, patient, full of love and all long suffering: having faith on the lord; having a hope that ye shall receive eternal life; having the love of god always in your hearts, that ye may be lifted up at the last day, and enter into his rest, and may the lord grant unto you repentance, that ye may not bring down his wrath upon you, that ye may not be bound down by the chains of hell; that ye may not suffer the second death. and alma spake many more words unto the people, which are not written in this book.
