PROVERBS, CHAPTER 22.

1. a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2. the rich and poor meet together: the lord is the maker of them all.

3. the prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

4. by humility and the fear of the lord are riches, and honour, and life.

5. thorns and snares are in the way of the froward; he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

6. train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

7. the rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.
